

What I should already know:	What will I know by the end of the unit?	Key Knowledge/Facts
<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>I know what is considered a crime in this country</li> <li>I know what punishments exist in our country in the present day</li> <li>I know who enforces the laws in our country</li> <li>I know who to go to if a crime has taken place</li> </ul>	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>What categorises as a crime has changed throughout history</li> <li>That punishments have varied throughout history</li> <li>That the role of the police have not always existed in history</li> <li>That crime rates have risen and dropped throughout history and the reasons for this</li> </ul>	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>To know that in 1154 AD the first common laws for the whole country and first judges and juries were introduced.</li> <li>To know in 1829 the metropolitan police became the first professional police force in Britain</li> <li>To know in 1920, women were first allowed to be jurors in court.</li> <li>To know that transportation to America started being used as a punishment in 1610 AD.</li> <li>To know in 1815, over 220 crimes become punishable by death.</li> <li>To know in 1999, capital punishment is abolished in the U.K</li> </ul>
Key Vocabulary and definitions:
Capital punishment	When a criminal is killed for their crime
Corporal punishment	When a criminal is physically punished for their crime
Deterrent	Something used to prevent people from carrying out a crime
Prejudice	Having an opinion that is not based in fact
Treason	Committing a crime against the King or Queen
Medieval	A period of time from AD500 to AD 1500
Oath	A promise to tell the truth
Jusitice	Fair treatment
Jury	A group of people who make a decision in court

The gallows have been used since Anglo-Saxon times, but was abolished as a form of punishment in the U.K in 1964

What I should already know:	What will I know by the end of the unit?	Key Knowledge/Facts
<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>I know what crime is</li> <li>I know what punishments we have</li> <li>I know who to go to if a crime has taken place</li> </ul>	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>How crime has changed through time</li> <li>That punishments have changed</li> <li>That crime rates have risen and dropped throughout history</li> </ul>	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>To know that in 1154 AD the first common laws were introduced.</li> <li>To know in 1829 the London police were the first trained police force in Britain</li> <li>To know in 1920, women were first allowed to be in a jury in court.</li> <li>To know that we used to send people to America as a punishment</li> <li>To know in 1999, capital punishment is abolished in the U.K</li> </ul>
Key Vocabulary and definitions:
Capital punishment	When a criminal is killed for their crime
Corporal punishment	When a criminal is physically punished for their crime
Deterrent	Something used to stop people from carrying out a crime
Treason	Committing a crime against the King or Queen
Medieval	AD500 to AD 1500
Oath	A promise to tell the truth
Jusitice	Fair treatment
Jury	A group of people who make a decision in court

The gallows have been used since Anglo-Saxon times, but has not been used since 1964